The Class of 1980 has dedicated its yearbook to Barbara Spivack for her constant support and guidance throughout our years here. She has given her time unselfishly not only to the class, but also to the yearbook. Without her continuing efforts and hard work, this edition would not have been possible. Therefore, to express our gratitude and appreciation we have made this dedication.

The next thing I know I'm all worried and weak And I feel myself Starting to crumble

The meanings get lost And the teachings get tossed And you don't know what you're Going to do next

The days miss their mark
And the night gets so dark
And some kind of message
Comes through to you
Some kind of message shoots through
And it says to you . . .

Love when you can Cry when you have To . . .

Be who
You must
That's all
Part of the Plan.

Your conscience awakes
And you see your mistakes
And you wish someone Would buy your confessions

The days miss their mark And the night gets so dark And some kind of message comes through to you Some kind of message shoots through And it says to you . . .

Await your arrival With simple Survival

And one day We'll all Understand

Love when you can Cry when you have to . . .
Be who you must
That's all part of the plan

Nursing. It can mean drying a tear.
Or saving a life.
Aiding the sick.
Or counseling the healthy,
Helping a baby take its first breath.
Or comforting an old man as he takes his last.
Nursing can mean many things.
But most of all, it means caring.

Congratulations Class of 1980

From the Student Government Association
